Oni Communications renews contract with Grupo Crédito Agrícola

Lisbon, 6th April 2009 - Oni Communications has just renewed its contract for the provision of communications services with Grupo Crédito Agrícola, for a further 3 years, a decision which has strengthened the confidence of this prestigious financial institution in the quality of the service provided by the telecommunications operator.

A customer of ONI for several years, this Group is provided with Voice, Data and Internet services, with various innovative business support solutions having been introduced, namely Metro Ethernet with high availability, a technical portal for the on-line provision and control of the agreed SLA, as well as the strengthening of the homebanking channel.

For Jorge Jordão, Chairman of the Board of Directors of CA Services Shared Service Centre, "it is with great satisfaction that we can count on the experience and know-how of Oni Communications to continue to provide a reliable and competitive service to our customers".

On this new contract, Joaquim Jesus dos Santos, CCO of Oni Communications, states that "the renewal of this agreement representing an award for the efforts developed by Oni and once again reinforces the confidence and satisfaction of the CCAM. Oni Communications thus strengthens its focus on the financial segment, where it already holds more than 40% of the market share and where it intends to continue to grow."

Oni Communications provides communications services transversally across the entire Crédito Agrícola Group, which has permitted ensuring the introduction of a variety of innovative solutions over the years.
